Read and Reflect.

DOORS open for matinees at 2 p. m. ; curtain rises at 2.30 p. m.
Evenings.--Doors open at 7.30, and curtain rises at 8.15 p. m. sharp.

Tickets can be reserved two days in advance without extra charge.

Office open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Seats can be secured by mail, telegraph or telephone. Telephone 732.

Seats ordered by Telephone or in Person, and not called for by 7.30 o'clock on the night of performance, will then be sold to avoid loss to the Theatre.

Physicians are requested to register at the Box Office, leaving seat number, as this will enable Ushers to find them, if called for, without disturbing the audience.

Children in arms not admitted to evening performances. Children three years old or over, full price.

Patrons will confer a favor by reporting to the management any incivility or inattention on the part of the employees, and annoyances of any nature.

If the individual members of an audience would stop to think for just an instant, they would undoubtedly appreciate the fact that the habit of rising from their seat and leaving the theatre before the curtain falls, is a most annoying one, and one that should be stopped. We therefore beg our audiences to kindly remain in their seats until the close of the performance.

Electric Cars will be waiting on Richmond St. for all parts of the City, at the close of each performance.

Carriages can be ordered at the Box Office or of the Chief Usher.

For all lost articles, apply at Box Office.

It is strange, but there is a class of people that seem to take an intense delight in bespattering the floor with tobacco juice, and in being boisterous and using profane language. These people should know at once that the courts authorize their immediate expulsion, should the management see fit to exercise its rights.

WHERE PEOPLE CONGREGATE,
THERE ADVERTISE.

IT is my pleasure to call your attention to the coming engagement of.....

The Camille D'Arville Opera Company

at the Grand Opera House, Saturday Evening, March 14th.

Miss D'Arville has ingratiated herself with the music-loving public by her many admirable qualities and artistic talents, and the company supporting her includes some of the most noted players in the field of comic opera, which, with principals and chorus, numbers seventy people.

The opera presented will be "Madeline, or the Magic Kiss," the most melodious, catchy and charming of comic operas, which remained in New York City twenty weeks; Boston, twenty-two weeks; Chicago, eight weeks; and Philadelphia, eight weeks, and scored the strongest success of last season.

A particular enhancement to this engagement will be that entirely new costumes and scenery will be used here.

Trusting you will encourage the efforts to provide high-grade attractions by favoring with your patronage.

I am, Yours respectfully,

A. E. ROOTE,

Manager Grand Opera House.

P. S.—The sale of seats will begin at the Box Office Thursday of this week.

C. J. WHITNEY, Lessee.

SIR WALTER RALEIGH, history says,
Is quite entitled to our praise
As being first to introduce
Tobacco for our present use.
He gave it to society
Without the least anxiety,
But since Sir Walter had his day
A few long centuries away,
Improvement has kept pace with need
In making up the fragrant weed.
Cigars, of course, are very old,
And some were worth their weight in gold.
But none you can purchase near or far
Are better than VARIATION or GRAND OPERA CIGAR.
Its aromatic smell is nice,
Its flavor good, 5 cents the price.

JOE NOLAN,

OPERA CIGAR STORE. MASONIC TEMPLE.

Friend (being shown through the house)—
"Do you find that the use of the gas-stove increases your gas bill much?" Mr. House-keep—"Not a bit, the company doesn't know we have it!"

Miss Coygirl—"Jack Softleigh told me last night that I ought to accept him, because he was willing to prove his love for me." Her Friend—"What did you say?" Miss Coygirl—
"I said I couldn't see it in that light." Her Friend—"Then what did he say?" Miss Coygirl—"Nothing. He just turned the light out."
